Board accepts bid on Gulfview gym restrooms

by EDGAR PEREZ
Bids for the long awaited restroom facilities at Gulfview Gymnasium were opened this week with school trustees

The gymnasium restroom has long since been a point of controversy in Lakeshore, with parents frequently calling on a money short school board to take positive action.

The May Company's low bid of $69,361 includes $3,322 worth of general repairs. Others bidding on the projects were: George Hopkins, Gulfport, $78,837; Deco Construction Co., Gulfport, $76,238; and Roy Anderson Jr., Inc., Gulfport, $73,191.

At the Wednesday morning session, which was an extension of a Tuesday night meeting, the board rescinded on Wednesday giving the nod to low bidder May Co. of Pascagoula. Included in the contract is a renovation package for the school building proper. Coast excursion train sought as L&N depot clean-up bonus

An excursion train from New Orleans to Ocean Springs and return is being proposed by Mayor Larry Bennett of Bay St. Louis.

Bennett, who last week made public his plans for an entire renovation of the city's old Louisville and Nashville Railroad depot and surrounding park area, said the train would probably pay for itself if it were fully utilized.

Originally Bennett considered the train should operate on a Friday evening, returning to New Orleans Sunday afternoon, giving the city dwellers full opportunity to enjoy the Coast over the weekend.

Subsequently, the thought has arisen that if such a train were to operate it would probably prove of greater benefit if more than one trip were scheduled, letting those persons on the coast who felt so inclined, to use the train to go to New Orleans for a day or two.

This two-way movement of people would, it has been stated, not only aid the Coast, but also the tourist industry of Louisiana.

Mayor John Longo of Waveland said he was enthusiastic towards the idea and would lend whatever support his city could offer.

Bay St. Louis are to be rigidly enforced. Mayor Larry Bennett on Tuesday received the unanimous endorsement of council to continue his policy of radar monitoring and limit enforcement in an effort to curb speeders and make the city a "safer place in which to live."

Councilmen were presented with the issue by Bennett during his "report to council."

Prior to the report, council approved a registration of voters commencing Nov. 1. This in an effort to "clean up the mess" left by the new ward split and the apparent non-purge of old voter registration books.

Speaking of the speed enforcement move, Bennett said, "I have ordered the police department to set up radar checks throughout the city."

"The speed limit in the city is 25 miles per hour unless otherwise indicated. "This is now being enforced and will continue to be enforced unless you, the council, object."

Interstate 10 welcome center is on schedule

Plans for the Hospitality Center at the intersection of Interstate Highway 10 (I-10) and State Highway 607 are proceeding according to plan. The ground preparation will be completed soon and contract for the building will be signed not later than Feb. of 1978.

The mayor added that as a result of his crack-down City Hall had received numerous complaints as it turned out, had councilmen themselves.

Far from criticizing his action, council rigorously endorsed the move, with Councilman Pete Benvenuti summing for all by saying, "We are behind you one hundred percent."

Councilman Wilmer Seymour said, "We are here to protect the people of this city. If my own son got caught speeding and had a ticket issued, he would have to pay the fine."

"I ask you, as one fifth of the council, to keep enforcing the speed limit..." He added that he was pleased to hear how council as a whole agreed with his thoughts.

White Cypress gumbo pots 'perking' on back burner

Festival is Sept. 30 - Oct. 2

BY EDGAR PEREZ
A fish fry, square dancing, fiddling and banjo picking contests will get the 3rd annual Gumbo Festival off to a lively start at Necaise Crossing Friday night, Sept. 30.

Gates will open for the first evening of the three-day affair at 5 p.m. Admission will be $3 per person, with children under 12 admitted free.

Proceeds from the festival, which runs through Sunday, Oct. 2, go to retirement of the debt on the infant Jesus of Prague Catholic Church, school classrooms and community hall. Festival sponsors promise "lots of good food, plenty of cold drinks and beer, live entertainment by bands and fiddlers, and the fun of good old fashioned square dancing to keep you happy and relaxed."

The "good food" promised by festival sponsors consists primarily of some 1,000 gallons of gumbo, carefully prepared in a 500-gallon antique cast iron pot.

Festival workers have spent weeks preparing more than a ton of ingredients to go into the caldron where they will be simmered for more than six hours, stirred, tasted, seasoned, tasted again and seasoned again, and tasted and seasoned, etc.

The result of all this effort is enough

gumbo to serve 5,000 to 7,000 people. For more gumbo, there will be an individual gumbo cooking contest which begins at noon Sunday.

Oyster tonging

season looks up, dredge hope down

The Mississippi Marine Conservation Commission, after sampling oyster beds in coastal waters this week, reports prospects for a bright season for tonging in the shallow waters. The commission reported, however, that dredging this year may be somewhat less than spectacular. "There is promise for the future," according to Dr. Richard Leard, commission executive director. Dr. Leard said a large number of "spat," or young oysters settling down on the shells of dredging beds, indicates a healthy outlook for dredging oystermen in future years.

Leard made his comments on the

One injured in shooting at Talavan Community site

Darrell Martin, 25, resident of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness, Inc.'s New Talavan Community in northeast Hancock County is out on $1500 bond following his being charged with aggravated assault following a shooting incident at that location.

Originally to be arraigned before Justice Court of Judge Horatio Frierson, Jr., yesterday, the hearing was postponed to Sept. 28, to permit additional evidence and witnesses to be gathered, according to Sheriff Sylvan Ladner, Jr., of Hancock County.

Ladner said the 306 rifle believed used in the shooting, which resulted in one youth being hospitalized, has been sent to Jackson for ballistics tests, by State Investigator Joe Price.

Hancock Chief Sheriff's Deputy Ronnie Peterson, said the Martin charge was laid after the wounding of one of three youths in a pick-up truck travelling the road adjacent to the Talavan Community's 607-acre farm.

Three Bay Students reach Merit semi-finals

Two Bay High School seniors and a recent graduate of the school are in competition this year for National Merit Scholarships, having been named semifinalists in the program.

The trio of top ranking scholars are Michelle M. Crull, 18; Katherine M. Ross, 17, and Mark R. Kelso, 17. Miss Crull and Miss Ross are both seniors at the school, and the Kelso youth graduated in August.

Michelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Crull, 903 Spanish acres Dr., is a straight-A student at Bay High. She was president of her sophomore class and holds membership in the school's Honor Society, French Club, Latin Club, Debate Team and Science Club.

A native of Kansas, Michelle came to Bay St. Louis in 1968 when her father began work at NASA where he is involved in Rocketdyne's space shuttle engine program.

She reported her favorite courses as physics, chemistry and mathematics. She was a District Science Fair winner in her sophomore year when she built an "interferometer" which projects light into a mirrored box to reveal interference rings "like the rings of a tree trunk," she reported. Michelle babysits in her spare time, is an active swimmer and plays softball in the Youth League.

She participated in a National Science Foundation program at Ole Miss this past summer where she specialized in mathematics. Gibson Carter, guidance counselor at Bay High, classified Michelle as an "exceptional student and highly sociable."

Miss Ross is National Honor Society president at Bay High and a member of the Science Club and French Club.

Like Michelle, she is an active athlete as well as an outstanding scholar. She is a member of Bay High's varsity tennis team.

Katherine, undecided between a career in architecture or chemical engineering, holds certificates of merit for her performances in the National French Test, and in an engineering competition in which she constructed a working model of a crane.

She is the daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Walter Henry Ross, Rt. 3, Box 550, Seventh St., Bay St. Louis.

Carter describes Katherine Ross as "quite and reserved." Carter also described Mark Kelso, son of Mrs. Janie Brantley of Bay St. Louis, as an "exceptional student."

Mark Kelso is holder of scholarships at USM from the university's Honors College and the Department of Polymer Science. He is majoring in polymer science. At Bay High he was manager of the baseball team and team statistician. He was a member of the Science Club,

French Club and National Honor Society, as well as editorial page editor of "The Student Prints."

Mark won first place honors at science fairs during his freshman and sophomore years at Bay High. He was voted outstanding male sophomore and outstanding male junior.

Kelso also served as a page in the Mississippi House of Representatives, won a civics award, and served on the constitutional committee of the Science Club.

OUTSTANDING SCHOLAR
Michelle M. Crull, 18, is a 1977 semifinalist in the National Merit Scholarship program. The Bay High School senior will receive a certificate of merit and is eligible for further competition to earn one of the 3,900 Merit scholarships to be awarded in the spring, 1978. (Staff photo-Edgar Perez)

SCHOLARSHIP CONTENDER
Katherine M. Ross, Bay High School senior, is ranked among the top half of one percent of 1977 graduating seniors in the United States. She is a semifinalist in the 2nd annual National Merit Scholarship program, named from among more than one million students in 17,500 high schools who entered this year's Merit Program. (Staff photo-Edgar Perez)

POLYMER SCIENTIST
Mark Kelso, one of three National Merit Scholarship semifinalists from Bay High School this year, is currently in residence at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg as a scholarship student from the university's Honors College and Department of Polymer Science.

THE THETA SYNDROME

By Elleston Trevor

This is a story of slow terror, of a mind imprisoned in a nightmare. At the hospital they found that the unexplained freeway crash had left Claudia Terman with severe brain damage: the attractive young victim lay in a coma, "dead" except that her brain was functioning feebly, in the theta-rhythm range, the twilight zone of consciousness. The case developed particular interest for Dr. Scott Rand. Partly it was compassion for the once-vital young woman who was now just a vegetable in the intensive care unit; and partly because of a puzzling element: the physical damage alone could not account for Claudia's condition. There was something else here... Odd things began to happen in the hospital and it finally became evident that somebody was coming to finish the job that the rigged accident had started. Someone was coming. But nobody could know who or from where except the comatose girl. The only clue to a killer was the silent scream of a terrified brain!

THE MENACE OF ATOMIC ENERGY

By Ralph Nader and Joan Abbotts

In this book, the authors replace the myth of nuclear energy with a clear description of the technology and its attendant perils. They analyze the performance of the atomic energy industry as it affects workers, consumers, taxpayers, and future generations. They take the reader step by step through the political thicket of atomic energy from the local community level to international relations. Decisions now being made about nuclear power will have far-reaching effects upon our economy, our institutions, and our freedom.

Above all, this book emphasizes that such choices must not be left only to experts and politicians.

THE FAMILY ARSENAL

By Paul Theroux

London is both theater and protagonist in Paul Theroux's powerful new novel. His cast comes from every layer of its society. In Deptford, a seedy riverside district, lives a group that might pass for a family: Valentine Hood, late an American consul in Hue, May, a female thief working for the IRA Provisionals; and two street-wise teen-age waifs, Muri who makes bombs, and the girl Brodie who plants them. Hood casts his lot with these dubious terrorists and finds that urban struggle is a family affair. "THE FAMILY ARSENAL" ranges wide, covering well-mapped parts of London such as Mayfair and the West End, and the darker less-charted territory of the city's underworld. It is at once a superbly crafted novel of complex relationships and a tautly strung thriller, vastly compelling on both levels.

PETERSEN'S COMPLETE BOOK OF PICKUPS & VANS

The heart of this book is the how's and what's of vans. Just about all the cut-em-down, jazz-em-up tricks that you can imagine are crammed into its pages. Interiors—custom mode—paint tricks—windows—exterior lighting—accessories; these and more should start a van owner to working on do-it-yourself projects.

But there's more here than vans, vans and more vans. A fair portion of the book deals with pickup trucks; from mini-haulers to outta-sight street bombs to the latest and greatest in special after-market equipment. All the new rigs from Detroit as well as those from across the Pacific go under the microscope, and there are stories on performance tricks, customizing, a raft of feature haulers, and enough how-to's to stir you into action on your own truck. So break out the tools, cancel any weekend plans, and flip these pages to whatever strikes your fancy. There's something in here for everyone.

ELEPHANTS in working harness aid in raising of "big top" for performance of King Bros. and Cole Combined Circus, to be at County fairgrounds for two performances, 4:30 and 8 p.m., Monday, Oct. 10.

Elephants work 'big top,' later don frills, stop show

To Hancock County children of all ages the word elephant brings to mind the circus but to the people of the circus it means "indispensable" as performer, worker and friend.

From the time the circus arrives in Bay St. Louis, Oct. 10, and starts to unload until the last truck is packed at night the elephants play an integral part in most all activities on the showgrounds. Early goes to the county fairgrounds on Longfellow Drive will have the opportunity to see the elephants of the King Bros. and Cole Combined Circus begin their duties of unloading the trucks, helping to erect the huge tent poles and furnishing the power that pulls the big-top into position. Plus the myriad other chores where human strength is not enough to get the job done.

Performances will be at 4:30 and 8 p.m.

Then after donning their fancy harness and ornate blankets comes the time to display their prowess as the largest performers the show has to offer. At each performance the mighty stars of the big top answers the commands of their pretty girl handlers with amazing grace and agility.

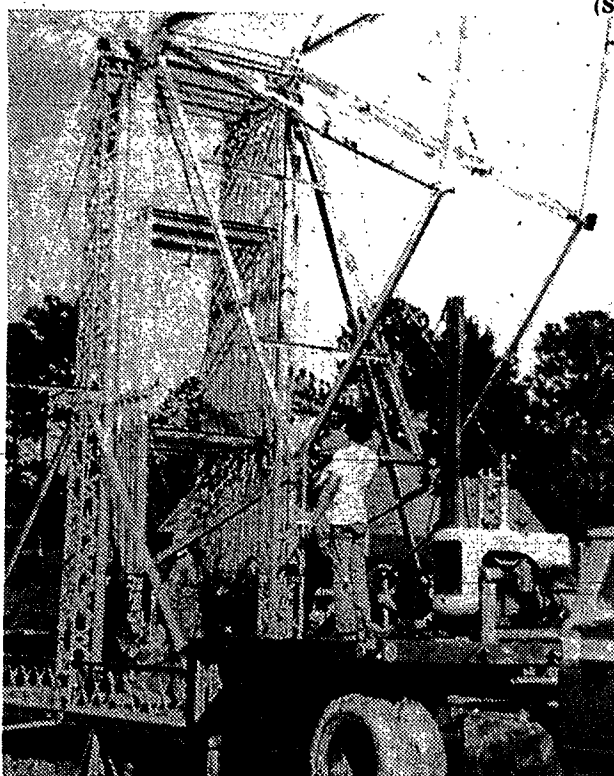

When the night show ends these wonder animals again slip into their working harness to assist in the dismantling and loading of the big show and when the last load is ready to roll they board their own special vehicles for the trip to the next town along the circus route where the daily routine will start all over again.

This showing of the circus is being sponsored by Kiwanis Club with the proceeds to be devoted to local projects. Twenty-five percent will go to the Hancock County United Way Campaigns.

THAT OLD ROCKER'S BACK

If that "ole rocking chair's got you," you're right in tune with the most popular trend in home furnishings today. It's called nostalgia and it's bringing back some old-time favorites. It all began with the return of those golden oak kiddies, so popular in the late 1800's and has now moved up a decade bringing us a handsome collection of masterpieces from the Edwardian era. And those generously proportioned rockers are very much in the spotlight.

Nostalgia is derived from the Greek nostos, meaning return home. And, there can be little doubt that home is where nostalgia seems to have settled in for a good long stay. These new reproductions blend in perfectly with any decor and create an aura of stability and continuity. They provide a link with the past and the future.

The dominant woods being used in these new old designs are wormy maple, oak, and pecan. The designs are robust and straightforward. They look as sturdy and solid as the Rock of Gibraltar and they will probably last just as long.

These mellow hardwood pieces are practically indestructible and so easy to care for. Grandmother may have spent hours waxing and polishing the originals, but times have changed. Today's finishes are tougher, today's women busier. Now, it's once over lightly with the dust cloth and a semi-annual waxing. That's all it takes to keep these glorious, oldies looking their best for years to come.

Any questions on hardwood? Write to Linda Forrest, Hardwood Institute, Suite 1920, 230 Park Ave., New York, N. Y. 10027.

Needleart Guild to have workshop

Gerry Blanchard of North Beach Blvd., Waveland, will be in attendance when Dixie Carlson of the Mid-South Embroiderers' Guild of Memphis, Tenn., addresses the September meeting of the Mississippi Coast Needleart Guild. The guild will meet at the Gulfport-Harrison County Library on Sept. 26 at 7:00 p.m. and again on the 27th at 9:30 a.m. Along with Mrs. Carlson there will be a travelling show of slides of needlearts from all over the United States.

Mrs. Carlson, of Marion, Arkansas, is affiliated with the National Standards Council of American Embroiderers and member-at-large of the Embroiderers Guild of America. She has attended stitch seminars at Calloway Gardens in Georgia, and seminars with the EGA plus classes in Arkansas. She is an avid stitcher, loves fancy stitches and enjoys stitching patterns as designs. Mrs. Carlson will share ideas from her guild plus show some of her work at both the morning and night programs.

Beginning Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Carlson will conduct a day and a half workshop featuring mitering corners and figuring how many units in each stitch so that they will fit exactly around the corner.

The public is invited to attend the evening and morning meetings. For information on the workshop contact Ms. Blanchard at 467-5940.

Little American Miss seeks Hancock girls

Hancock County girls between the ages of three to 12 are being sought as contestants in the sixth annual Little American Miss national finals, to be staged Friday and Saturday, Nov. 25-26 at the Sheraton Chateau Charles in Lake Charles, La.

Entry information is available by writing to "Pageants", P.O. Box 1014, Lake Charles, La. 70602.

No talent competition will be involved in the actual pageant, but separate awards will be made for talent efforts.

Competition will be in five different age divisions, with the winner in each division becoming a finalist. One of the five finalists will then be chosen by the judges to reign as Little American-Miss-1977.

To be eligible, a girl must have won or placed in a sanctioned Little American Miss pageant in her home state. If no such event was staged, then any girl within the 3-12 year age span will be accepted on an at-large basis.

Present titleholder is Tamara Ivonna Frye, age 4 of Sulphur, La. Miss Frye won her title at the Sheraton Chateau Charles last year in competition with a field of 40 contestants representing ten states and 12 different Louisiana communities.

Senior Citizens happenings

By FRED HORN

Six weeks ago at our noon day luncheon, the Mississippi Valley Food Services, conducted a cook off contest. There were six participants, and Mrs. Esther Travica Cuevas a member of our day care center, won first place for her eggplant recipe which entitled her to go to Hattiesburg to enter in a thirty county wide cook off contest. She was accompanied by Pam Jones, Site manager of our nutrition department.

Although competition was extremely good, Esther Cuevas came through with flying colors, winning first prize, a three and a half quart crock pot. Congratulations Esther, everyone at this center is proud of you.

Mrs. Cuevas, a native of Bay St. Louis, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Victor Damborine. She attended Old Webb School, and Our Lady of the Gulf School. Her teacher was Sister Servino.

Esther is quite active in civic and volunteer work. She is past president of the V.F.W. and World War I Women's Auxiliary, and at the present time she is Chaplain for the Disabled American Veterans chapter; guard, VFW Ladies Auxiliary; Retired Senior Volunteer Program Member.

She is a volunteer worker for American Red Cross, telephone reassurance, recreation, County Home, welfare, Good Will, Information and Referral, Spend the Day, Silver Creek School for Exceptional Children, and RSVP office.

Anyone interested in her eggplant recipe please contact Mrs. Esther Cuevas.

HUMANITIES PROGRAM

The Hancock County Senior Citizens Center, has been picked as a self start center for the National Council on the Aging (NCOA) Humanities Program.

The program's entitled, Self-Discovery Through The Humanities, and consists of three courses, each to last six-nine weeks.

The first course chosen is entitled "Images of Aging in Literature".

The course will be led by a discussion leader, and the class of 12 to 20 people will meet weekly for 60 to 90 minutes.

The NCOA will supply

ESTHER CUEVAS

textbooks and tape recordings of book selections. These recordings will enable handicapped or non-reading persons to participate in the program.

The first meeting in this area is scheduled for Oct. 7th at 10:30 at the Hancock County Public Library. Enrollment is limited, so it will be necessary for those people 60 and over who are interested in the program to come by the Senior Citizens Center at 301 Old Spanish Trail, or call 467-3763 or 467-9291 for advanced registrations.

Former Bay resident

gets award

Malcolm "Moe" Moreau of the Baton Rouge National Weather Service Office, former resident of 132 Court Street, Bay St. Louis, was awarded the Department of Commerce Bronze Medal for meritorious service.

The award was presented at a dinner Sept. 12, at the Smugglers Inn, Baton Rouge. The function was attended by several Weather Service representatives and their wives from as far away as Washington, D.C. and Fort Worth, Texas. Charles Ridge, Regional Headquarters, Fort Worth, Texas, made the presentation.

Moreau has been employed by the National Weather Service since November 1958 with a total 23 years federal service. He has served as Substation Network Specialist for Louisiana since Sept. 1962, and is now responsible for the management of nearly 200 cooperative weather stations in Louisiana and Texas.

Dracula to cross Bay stage

By MIKE CUEVAS

Gulf Coast theatre goers will get the fright of their lives October 6, 7, & 8 when they attend the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre production of "Dracula," being directed by Ted Stechmann.

This most popular of mystery plays is from Bram Stoker's world famous novel of the same name.

The vampire play in three acts is being produced by Roger Scharp with technical direction by John Holmes.

Appearing as the mysterious Dracula is Doug

Roger. Skip Wunack stars as the dashing young hero John Harker. Theatre favorite Ed Craig handles the role of Abraham Van Helsing astutely.

The lunatic Renfield is being portrayed by Jay Heitzmann with Loren Hoover as the attendant, Butterworth. Walter Vaughn appears as Dr. Seward, the typical specialist who lives in a world of textbooks and patients.

Lucy, the beautiful young woman with the "unnaturally pale face is portrayed by Debbie Shafer. Nannette Stroh appears as the maid.

Local audiences, accustomed to first rate productions from the local players will be chilled and thrilled by the great vampire play, mysterious, uncanny and supernatural all in one production.

Slow down or be ticketed

Bay St. Louis police department was given 100 percent backing by the City Council Tuesday night on enforcing speed limits.

The Police Department will use its radar system throughout the city to enforce these limits.

A speed of 25 miles per hour is the limit for the vast majority of streets, with other limits marked.

One of the main reasons for the enforcing of the speed limits has to be our children walking and riding bicycles to and from school. The majority of students attending Bay St. Louis Schools walk or ride bikes.

If we receive a speeding ticket, we can't say that we haven't been warned. We all speed without realizing just how fast we are traveling.

We can be good citizens by observing all speed limits, especially school zones. We can save money by not being ticketed for speeding.

Slow down in Bay St. Louis.

Opinion/Jake Jacob

From the heart of the farmer comes the pulse of our county

A survey taken by the Department of Journalism, University of Mississippi, this week revealed that 100 percent of the people polled in this state considered that of the people on welfare, most had dishonest reasons for being there.

Too, the cold figures showed that rural residents of Mississippi registered a much higher count as to the degree of this dishonesty than the urban dweller.

The purpose of this comparison is not to pass judgement on welfare recipients, they have enough problems of their own already. Rather it is to again illustrate the thinking of country people in relation to the urban dweller, the free, independent spirit, versus the more liberally inclined metropolitan dweller.

Beside the farmers of this county are an increasing number of would-be farmers, market gardeners, ranchers, week-end produce growers, and plain ordinary folks who have struck out to try and farm "a few acres" just because they like hard work and enjoy the rewards of their labor.

Whatever the reason for the return to the land, America can do a lot worse than to make every resource available to those who exercise a desire to participate in this basic need for all life - the production of food.

In spite of advances in the fields of finance, commerce, medicine, and industry, and - if it indeed be a unique field - space, a base factor still remains.

"When the farmer has money - everybody has money.

"When the farmer is broke - everybody is broke."

It is to the constantly "disappearing" land the nation turns in time of need, for substance and heart.

It is the land of this county that now needs the attention of the county.

For the second time in less than six months the county emergency committee has declared the county a disaster area for farmers.

The reason for the action is that during the early part of the year the corn, watermelon, produce, and grass farmer suffered severe crop failure due to lack of moisture as the county, along with the rest of the southeast, suffered through a record setting drought.

Then, at the beginning of July, the rains came, too late for many but still possibly in time for the soy bean crop, the principal ground crop of the county with a market value - had all been according to expectations, in the regions of $2 million.

That, while putting some individuals into a higher tax bracket, would have put money into most of the pockets of this county - either directly or indirectly.

All stood to prosper, but now all stand to lose.

David C. Chazez

Fund

Editor,
Sea Coast Echo

Dear Sir:

This accident happened on August 19, 1977 in the late afternoon, on Hwy. 603 (Kiln Road) approximately 1 1/2 miles North of U.S. Hwy. 90.

The injured boy is David C. Chazez, age 14, son of Frederick and Hazel Chazez of Rt. 3, Box 355, Bay St. Louis. Their Residence is on Yazoo St., Shoreline Park.

David is enrolled at Bay Senior High in the 10th grade, also a baseball player at the position of 2nd base for two years in the "Babe Ruth League." Prior to this he also played in the "Little League."

The extent of injuries are many, a broken left leg approximately six inches above the ankle, involving both bones, which required surgery twice to dress the breaks and pinning the breaks together. Broken right ankle which required surgery to mend such a complex area. Severe laceration on the rear thigh of the left leg, which caused severe loss of blood. Requiring surgery and blood transfusions. Severe lacerations on front and rear side of the chest. Concussion at left lower back of skull, behind the left ear. Broken left arm and left upper shoulder; the arm is broken midway or so, between left elbow and shoulder. David entered the hospital again yesterday September 11th to repair the breaks and injuries to his left arm and shoulder and necessary surgery. These injuries being suffered by David C. Chazez are very costly and also a great and painful worry and burden to David, his mother and dad and the other members of the family. Those of us who have compassion and love for other members of the Human family, will do all we can to contribute what we can afford, to help make David as whole a boy as medical and surgical science can do to a broken human body. He may (David) never achieve his goal of becoming a major league baseball player, but he will know that many people care for a badly injured 14 year old boy.

This accident occurred a short distance from the front of our home and we would have much preferred that it had not happened.

However, my wife (Lena) and I are both senior citizens, she is near 66 years and I am pushing 75. Between us we have talked and analyzed the serious effect attached to such a disastrous accident which befell David C. Chazez on August 19, 1977.

We have pledged our time and efforts, and a modest contribution to start a fund, along with your contributions for the total welfare of David C. Chazez and family to ease a very heavy financial obligation.

Join us in this just, honest and sincere cause, which we wish to call "The David C. Chazez Fund"

Sincerely,
Emanuel A. Dansereau

Barking dogs

Waveland
Sept. 19, 1977Letters to the Editor
Sea Coast Echo

Dear Sir:

About Waveland "how far can it go" I'd say we do have a lovely little town, governed by fine men, really a nice place to live.

I've been here twenty years, my only complaint is barking dogs at night, making it almost impossible to get a nights sleep, and roaming dogs not really strays, just wish they would do something concrete about them -

Sincerely,
Louise Markey

Mississippi consumer report

CLOTHING LABELING
Read the Label

The fall of the year, in many households, is a time for "back-to-school" shopping. A wise consumer will check not only for the appearance, fit, and serviceability of the garment, but will also note the information supplied by the labels and hangtags. Under the Textile Products Identification Act, each garment must have a label securely and conspicuously affixed. Such labels must include the generic or family name of the fiber, a list of fabrics in order of predominance, and the percentage of the fiber by weight.

One of the most important items which should be first inspected before purchasing is the care label. All wearing apparel must have such a label permanently attached, and the instructions must be legible for the life of the garment. The care label warns the consumer of any expensive or time-consuming laundry procedures, and tells you whether to avoid, for example, bleach or hot temperatures. When you clean clothes, always follow the instructions carefully; heed the warnings of dry-cleaning solvents when using self-operating dry-cleaning machines, and point out the care label to the workers at the commercial dry cleaners when employing their services.

All piece goods to be used by the consumer for apparel, and all ready-to-wear garments and hosiery must be labeled. These rules do not, however, apply to a few items such as disposable products.

The fiber content and care labels are for the consumer's advantage in lengthening the life of textile garments. If the labels are not attached to the apparel or piece goods, the store manager should be able to supply them upon request.

WHY MILEAGE
DIFFERS

Have you ever wondered why the advertisements for new cars claim a high mileage rate per gallon of gas, and when you drive the same model car, the rates drastically vary? The advertisement claims are true, but the rates can seem to be misleading if one does not take into consideration how these figures were obtained.

The way cars are tested and the driving habits of motorists make a big difference in the amount of gasoline consumed. Cars are test driven on smooth surfaces, and under strict supervision, taking advantage of all known ways to conserve gas during the tests. Two techniques used to keep mileage down are a light touch on the accelerator and maintenance of a constant speed.

In routine driving, the Mississippi motorist encounters stop-and-go traffic, pauses at intersections, and poor road surfaces. Even the strictest "mileage conscious" driver will not meet the same rates as in laboratory tests due to wind resistance and road friction.

Many people claim that yesterday's automobile had better gas mileage than the sophisticated models of today. A top-condition, 1960 Model "A" Ford got only 15 miles to a gallon!

Governor Cliff Finch

REPORT TO THE PEOPLE

BY GOV. CLIFF FINCH

I have just returned from a trade mission to the Far East that makes me very excited about the potential Mississippi has for doing business in that section of the world.

The purpose of the mission was to seek new markets for Mississippi products and to show Japanese and Chinese businessmen the opportunities and advantages of locating a manufacturing plant in Mississippi.

We feel the trade mission will have millions of dollars in benefits for the people of Mississippi over the years, but we were also able to show some immediate results.

Probably the most important success to date has been the agreement with a large Japanese soybean processor to put a plant in the Mississippi Delta on the new river port being constructed at Rosedale in Bolivar County.

This plant will be one of the most modern in the world and will be a major breakthrough in our longtime goal of processing the agricultural products we grow in Mississippi.

Most of the credit for getting this company to come to Mississippi is due

Ed Kossman of Cleveland and the many fine civic leaders of that city and Bolivar County. The advance work that Kossman and his team had done prior to the trade mission assured this much-needed facility for Mississippi.

One of the things I like about the plant agreement is the fact that it will be a joint venture between the Japanese company and the farmers and people of Mississippi. I think it is good that our people will have the opportunity to own stock in this company that can mean so much to the economy of our state.

It is really satisfying to know that Mississippi is finally doing something about processing our products. This means that our farmers will have a competitive edge because of the closeness of processing facilities, as well as the fact that the plants will mean new jobs.

In the past few months, we have had the opportunity to participate in announcements for two rice mills, a textile mill and now this soybean mill.

We will continue to seek such processing plants until we process everything we grow in Mississippi, including seafood, catfish, timber and vegetable crops.

enforcement, council asked Bennett to conduct a survey of all posted speed signs to ascertain they were not contradictory and in accord with existing by-laws.

Speaking of the re-registration proposal Council President James Thriffley, said that many people experienced problems in the last municipal election and that several did not understand the wards.

Benvenuti and Seymour put the motion on the books, but a proposed amendment by Councilman Harry Farve to have the registration books available for night registration actually at the ward voting sites, was withdrawn after council agreed to establish a series of procedures for the registration process.

Farve agreed to temporarily shelve
his motion after hearing council outline other proposals, such as having the books taken to the high school for registration of eligible students. He is to confide with other council members concerning the issue and indicated a desire to sponsor the procedure motion
when completed.

To start Nov. 1, the re-registration will continue through Nov. 1 of next year with two sets of books valid. At this time the existing set will be withdrawn and the new books used.

The existing registration books would be utilized in the event of a special election prior to Nov. 1 of 1978, and therefore will be kept current. Voters will however have to re-register to be included in the new books.

In other matters: council decided to investigate the method of payment of funds administered by the county welfare office for the payment of utility bills; appointed the firm of Moore and Powell as city auditors for the 1977 annual audit, at an estimated cost of between $10,250 and 11,500 to include both the city general and utility department accounts; heard from their engineers, Burk and Associates, concerning the status of plans and specifications on sewer line plans in the newly annexed area; and noted the power companies had begun to move poles back along the Main Street renovation project right-of-way. Here it was learned adverse weather conditions had seriously hampered plans for earlier removal.

Burk representative Charles H. Hill of Pearlport and Gulfport said the date of the EDA-AWPC inspection would be conveyed to council, along with a complete set of proposed water and sewer extension plans in the newly annexed area. This he said would permit them to meet with the officials concerned to make their views of potential high development areas and the like known.

Hill said that once the decision was made on development priorities the city would be "locked-in" on future government grants concerning the newly annex area's water and sewer line extension.

On the proposed overpass, Hill said the city was about 10 days away from approval of a grant offer for the balance of financing through EDA, and that overpass site plans had been submitted to the highway departments and their approval should be forthcoming in a few days.

veterinary service.

Earlier this month the Hancock County Board of Supervisors endorsed a plea brought before them by Bienville Community farmer Clarence Lee, stating that if something was not done immediately, the county's farmers stood to lose their lands, equipment,
and crop, due to the anticipated harvest loss.

Lee told the supervisors, the Washington and State congressional and legislative delegations, and the Hancock County Farm Bureau, that with no measureable rainfall between May 1 and July 5, the county's drought had put most of the watermelon, corn, produce, and grass farmers out of business, while rain without ceasing since that time had ruined the soybean crop through blight, worms, bugs, and weeds.

A previous local disaster designation
had fallen on deaf ears at the Jackson ASCS office due to their having been rain at that time. It was to have been reconsidered in 60 days, but farmers, facing economic ruin, had moved ahead
of the proposed review date.

A resolution from the Hancock County Farm Bureau had also urged a review, complete with an up to date set of statistics being compiled.

The Poplarville meeting this week disclosed that Hancock County has

approximately 300 farmers. These were broken into 12 dairymen, 205 beef producers, 40 hog producers, with sheep, produce, and grain, grass, and bean producers also being listed.

The meeting estimated that 15 of the sheep producers and a like number of beef producers would be liquidating their flocks and herds if the loans were not forthcoming.

Crop loss quantities, and their priority ratings were assessed as:
Hancock; soy beans, 60 percent;
permanent pasture (grazing lands), 40 percent; hay crops, 60 percent; feeder grain (including corn), 90 percent;
peas, 40 percent; melons, 40 percent.

The Pearl River percentages were identical except the priority listed pastureland loss as number one priority, soy beans as number two, with the balance following the Hancock trend.

Findings of the local disaster board now go to Jackson, for review, and if approved, to the Governor for his endorsement prior to their being sent to Washington.

"We are aware of the situation and the farmer's plight," Gennin said, adding, "but we have channels to follow
and this takes time."

Lede, also present at the session, said
the farmer has been hit with a hard loss and "...we need to know if the program has been approved."

adults.

Essentially, Catholic Social Services
is a casework agency, assisting family units to cope with problems arising from poverty, physical and mental illness, alcoholism, husband-wife relations and parent-child relationships. Problems handled by this agency take in the life span from infancy to old age.

In regard to the all important foster care problem of the homeless child, which includes in the beginning the recruitment of proper homes, this is accomplished through contact with clergymen, civic groups and other interested and helpful persons. Homes are needed for infants, children, teenagers, unwed mothers, and in the present unwed mother situation, homes are also needed for the mother and her child.

When Catholic Social Services is contacted by a potential foster home couple, an application is made, references are sought from clergymen
and other interested helpful persons, and then home interviews are held with the couple. This at times causes a problem, since foster parents often become discouraged while waiting for a child to become part of their family.
Much time is given prospective parents
as to their role. Placement of children in foster care or institutions does not take place without trying to correct conditions in the home which are causing the removal of the child.

In the case of unwed parents, the girls are referred to Catholic Social Services
by clergymen, physicians, lawyers, hospitals, other agencies, personal contact or referral by some other person in a similar situation. This agency serves anyone distressed by an unplanned or untimely pregnancy and

after counselling, assists in making plans best suited to the individual circumstances surrounding each case.

If the girl cannot continue to live with her family, maternity care can be arranged, and the agency has several homes where expectant mothers can live while awaiting the birth of their babies.

In most cases the girl may continue her education either by correspondence or by special arrangement with the home and school.

Following the birth of the baby the mother signs a foster home arrangement until permanent plans can be made for the girl to either decide to keep her baby or place it for adoptions.

In 1975 one out of five Mississippians was born out of wedlock. At that time only Washington D.C. was higher.

Catholic Social Services offers counselling and assistance to adults and youth.

Their workers give much time to working with children whose problems
often arise from home situations, caused by divorce, separations and other disruptions in the life of a child.

They also give many hours of counselling to the boys in our Hancock County Youth Court.

Catholic Social Services is now in Phase 11 of the Vietnamese Resettlement Program, assisting approximately 300 families now living on the Gulf Coast. The program is designed to provide job training and placement, language skills and adjustment to a new culture.

In the area of disaster relief, Catholic Social Services is prepared to help pool
the resources of the Churches (principally buildings and personnel) and they are prepared to work with other agencies to facilitate speedy assistance and relief.

The United Way is indeed happy to have this very fine social organization
as one of its member agencies.

PRJC drops student '77 enrollment

Pearl River Junior College's fall enrollment is down about five percent, according to Willis Lott, director of admissions.

Pearl River's enrollment has been increasing each year, since 1969. At the close of registration last year 1,281 students were enrolled at the Poplarville center - this year
1,223 students are counted.

"We're not alarmed over the decrease at all," Lott said,
"in fact it seems to be a common trend with other junior colleges across the state. Most of the other two year schools within the state are holding their own or showing a similar decrease."

"The phasing out of a lot of veteran's benefits may be affecting our enrollment," Lott said. Forty nine more veterans were reported on campus during the spring semester.

Pearl River's day classes at the Poplarville center is peaking at 1,223 while 114
more are taking night classes.
The total enrollment for the Poplarville campus is 1,337.

The overall enrollment,
including the Columbia, Picaune, Hattiesburg, and Hancock campuses will peak around the 3500 mark for the fall semester.

Senior Citizens happenings

BY FRED HORN

Birthdays of month

On Monday, Sept. the 19th at 1:30 p.m., the Senior Citizens of Hancock County extended birthday greetings to the following Seniors, having birthdays. This month, Thelma McEvoy, age 70; Laura Mauffray, age 81; Andrew H. Dilly, age 70; Alice Coyne, age 77; Emma C. Wright, age 79.

Yours truly who works as an associate to Jim Hoda, Recreation Director, initiated something new for the Seniors celebrating birthdays each month. Each Senior celebrating a birthday in that particular month is given a number and the lucky number drawn is given a prize. The September winner was Mrs. Emma C. Wright, age 79. Congratulations Emma, many Happy returns of the day. The prize, donated by Danny's Fried Chicken, was two boxes of chicken dinners.

The Seniors had an enjoyable afternoon, entertainment was furnished by Edie Wilhelm, who entertained the Seniors by playing several selections on the xylophone. Edie is a versatile musician, after she finished entertaining the Seniors, which everyone enjoyed very much, she played the piano for yours truly, who sang, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" and "Love Makes the World Go Round." She also played the piano for the Seniors, in a community sing-a-long. Singing many of the old time favorites was a lot of fun.

Refreshments consisting of home made cakes, a special birthday cake and punch were served after the community-sing-a-long.

The Door Prize was won by Mrs. Julia Leddy. The Door Prize, a nine-inch birthday cake, was donated by the Waveland Bakery on Coleman Avenue.

Our compliments and many thanks to all of our RSVP volunteers as follows: telephone committee - Eva Ruhr, Jewell Stratton, Cecile Gallivan, Georgia Diebold, Annie Sulzer, and Alma Joubert; baking cakes - Jewell Stratton, Hazel Burkley, Annie Sulzer, and Leonie Fricke; refreshments - Oline Moran, Rose Kenndy, Leonie Fricke, Ethel Dormain, and Mrs. Julia Leddy. Many thanks to Huge Miller, who set up our public address system and for registering all of our seniors for the birthday party. We don't mean to be repetitious, it is with the help of our RSVP Volunteers, that makes all of our functions successful.

I have a correction to make from last week's column. The games and entertainment as planned by our Program Specialist, Donnell Taylor, will not be included in the Sept. 26th Picnic for the Seniors at Buccaneer Park. It will be included in three county wide area picnics which takes place on Thursday, Oct. 6th, at Buccaneer State Park. Please call Pam Jones, 467-9292 for reservations.

RSVP Awards program

Friday, Sept. the 16th, at the American Legion Post in Waveland, Mississippi, a memorable event, took place, it was the annual, "Presentation of Awards," that the volunteers anxiously look forward to attending each year.

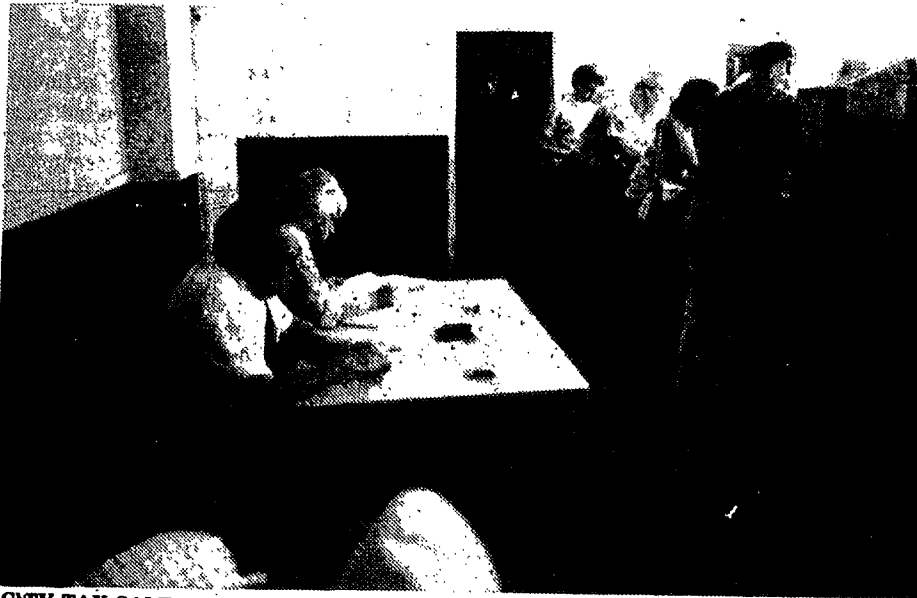

Theresa James, Director of RSVP for Hancock County, Renee Carver, Assistant Director, and Charles Johnson, Driver-Clerk are to be congratulated along with many of the RSVP Volunteers who helped to make the presentation of awards an outstanding event. Orchids to all for excellent achievement.

Among the many dignitarians attending the awards were Mayor Larry Bennett and Mrs. Bennett, Jane Kennedy, Director of Aging for the Southern Mississippi Planning and Development District and her assistant Pat Paldauf, Al Johnson, State Director for the Action Program, and Mr. Bill Tate, Special Representative from the Governor's Staff. There were 230 people in attendance. The invocation was given by Rev. Charles Clark, pledge of allegiance to the flag, was given by Jimmy Huber, Fred Horn led in the singing of our National Anthem.

Entertainment was furnished by one of the most outstanding organists in America. This also writes music. Nicky Gordon, our talented organist presented an afternoon of entertainment that will be remembered. Among the many engagements where Nicky Gordon entertained, was the Imperial Room, Baker Hotel, Dallas, Texas, Miss National Teenage of Mississippi 1975, 1976, and 1977. Miss Mississippi Universe Beauty Pageant of 1975, 1976 and 1977. Her accomplishments are many. Miss Nicky Gordon donated her services to RSVP and Mrs. Theresa James. As Theresa said, it was the answer to her prayers, to have Nicky Gordon entertain at the RSVP Awards.

Charles Johnson and Renee Carver of the RSVP Staff sang a rendition of "More." Renee is quite versatile, she played the background music on the piano for their duet. Fred Horn sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The dinner consisted of roast beef, gravy, macaroni and cheese, green peas, rolls, cake and cola. The dinner was cooked by the ladies from Head Start and St. Rose De Lima School. It was a delicious meal. Our compliments to all of you wonderful ladies. The boys and girls from Project Do under the direction of Brother Canisius, served the dinner, what more can we say than thanks a million to all of you for your wonderful cooperation.

Krishna shooting...

Ladner said some confusion arose last week concerning his office's role in the affair but this was caused by witnesses and others involved, including the Talavan Community itself, calling the Pearl River Sheriff's office prior to contact being made with his department.

Peterson who with Deputies Mac Cowan, and Delber Seay, assisted Ladner in the investigation, said a full determination of the incident had not yet been made.

From initial reports it appeared the three youths all of Picayune and described only as juveniles, had passed and repassed the community several times prior to the shooting, conducting what Bico Kuyt, president and minister in charge, reportedly stated were "harassing tactics."

These included the "yelling of profanities" and using a spotlight, Kuyt seemingly claimed.

Peterson said the shot fired from the rifle, apparently by Martin, is alleged to have penetrated the back of the truck and to have struck the youth in the leg.

In speaking this week of the wound, Ladner said considerable bleeding had taken place before the young man was put inside the emergency facilities of Crosby Memorial Hospital in Picayune, where his condition early Monday was reported as "satisfactory."

"We definitely feel the shooting occurred on the road," Peterson is quoted as saying.

The sheriff said the charge for firing across or on a public road was now "aggravated assault." Previously such charges as aiming and pointing, or shooting across a public road may have been laid.

Chief Deputy Peterson said that according to the youths they were just passing the farm when the truck was shot without provocation. The youths stated they had been firing weapons at a dump site about one mile from the shooting site, although the community's residents allegedly claimed shots were fired at them by the youths.

An additional report relayed to Peterson from the Pearl River County Sheriff's Office, claimed a resident of the area had filed a statement with them reporting that youths in a pickup truck had fired at his home.

Sheriff Lawrence Holliday of Pearl River County and Ladner, aided by eight deputies, complete with search warrant, searched the community Friday afternoon.

Two guns were discovered, both in a rack in the office.

Additional controversy arose between the method of search and time involved, with Kuyt claiming the deputies were excessive in number and the search taking 90 minutes as police went through the houses and belongings of the approximately 30 members present at time of the search.

Officers in both sheriff's departments gave the time of search as approximately 45 minutes, claiming the large numbers of law enforcement personnel were required due to the count of community members present.

Peterson described the round-up as "basic operational procedure" during a search, necessary to prevent possible hiding of weapons.

"We didn't go there to harass anybody," he said.

Ladner was described by the Krishna Community people as "respectful" and "decent" while Sheriff Holliday came in for more harsh words.

A question concerning jurisdiction was solved by Holliday, who noted that his department became involved because of a question as to whether the incident occurred in Hancock or Pearl River County.

The Talavan Community lands "begin" in Hancock and its main structures are concentrated a short distance below the county line, but some of the involved 607 acres stretches into Pearl River.

Frequently the target of local animosity, the group has clashed with the Hancock supervisors concerning the county's failure to grant them a complete tax exemption on all the lands, claiming that in addition to a church they operate as a school.

The supervisors, in response, approved only a fraction of the area for tax exemption stating such was sufficient for the church and as the school was not in any way certified by the state they could not further extend the exemption.

condition of oyster beds in Mississippi coastal waters after a trip Monday aboard the commission vessel "The Conservationist."

Last year's crop was the finest in several years, the commission director said, citing high salinity of water earlier this summer and other environmental causes as possible reasons for the condition of this year's oysters.

The oyster season opened at sunrise Tuesday.

He credited the state's $50,000 program of moving oysters from polluted beds to cleaner areas as the primary salvation of the dredging system.

Size and quality of oysters on a newly-opened reef off Long Beach came as a surprise to the officials on the Conservationist Monday.

"The oysters here are beautiful," said Leard. "I really didn't expect them to be this nice this early in the season."

He noted, however, that oysters are not plentiful on the reef.

The officials remained optimistic and encouraged oystermen not to be discouraged by early-season findings.

In addition, they urged on the fishermen a strict compliance with new laws applicable to the season.

Entrance prize drawings are planned as a continuous event during the three days of festivities.

Festival officials have reported the concerted effort of more than 200 people has gone into the planning and staging of this year's event.

Admission Saturday and Sunday is $5 per person each day, with children under 12 admitted free. An adult ticket good for admission all three days can be purchased for $10, festival officials reported.

Among the highlights Sunday will be crowning of the festival queen who will then be eligible for the Miss Mississippi Pageant.

Winner will be selected from among three young ladies from the White Cypress-Necaise Crossing community who are competing in a festival fundraising drive.

They are Carla Necaise, 17; Peggy Sue Saucier, 17; and Cindy Necaise, 17. They are competing for sales of festival tickets, advertising and other promotions.

SUBSTITUTED TRUSTEE'S NOTICE OF SALE

WHEREAS, on October 14, 1970, EDWARD S. BELL and wife, NELLIE BELL, executed a Deed of Trust to W. Marie Mann, Trustee for Wortman & Mann, Inc., which Deed of Trust is recorded in Deed of Trust Book 148, at Pages 149-152, in the office of the Chancery Clerk of Hancock County, Mississippi, and WHEREAS, the said Deed of Trust and the indebtedness secured thereby were assigned to Shadow Lawn Savings & Loan Association, by instrument dated November 30, 1970, recorded in Deed of Trust Book 149, at Page 261, of the aforesaid records, and

WHEREAS, by authority of said Deed of Trust, Shadow Lawn Savings & Loan Association, the holder of said Note and Deed of Trust, substituted Charles K. Pringle as Trustee therein by instrument dated August 24, 1975, recorded in Deed of Trust Book 201, at Page 686, of the aforesaid records, and

WHEREAS, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness secured by the said Deed of Trust and the holder having requested and directed the undersigned Substituted Trustee so to do, I will on the 6th day of October, 1977, offer for sale at public outcry and sell during legal hours, being between 11:00 A.M. and 4:00 P.M., at the main front door of the County Courthouse for Hancock County at Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, for cash, to the highest and best bidder, the following described land and property, lying and being situated in Hancock County, Mississippi, to-wit:

Lots Ninety-One (91) and Ninety-Two (92), THIRD WARD, in the City of Bay St. Louis, Hancock County, Mississippi.

I will convey only such title as is vested in me as substituted Trustee. WITNESS my signature this 8th day of September, 1977.

Charles K. Pringle
Substituted Trustee

according to Jolly McCarty, Chairman, Gulf Coast I-10 Committee.

The access and exit roads to the center were explained to the I-10 group by R. L. Holliman, Assistant Chief Engineer-Operations of the Mississippi State Highway Department, recently in Biloxi.

"Motorists will enter from Highway 607 just south of I-10 and exit from 607, leading to US 90 along the Coast," Holliman said.

Signs announcing the Hospitality Center will be placed along I-10 and 607. The signs will mention the Scenic Gulf Coast Beach routes.

A large "Welcome to Mississippi" sign is to be placed at ground level just east of Pearl River, the Louisiana Mississippi State line.

Known as the "Federal Assistance Program Retrieval Service" (FAPRS) the scheme eliminates the necessity of conducting hours of research into federal programs, available from various agencies and administrations. The user, be they county, municipality, or individual, first completes the FAPRS Short Form Code Sheet, citing thereon such pertinent details as area population, the type of loan sought, region, category, and the entity of the inquiring party, turns it over to the extension service who feed it to the computer. The answer to the question is supplied in minutes, along with a definitive course of action to be followed.

The category selection is split between community facilities, business and industrial development, planning and technical assistance, housing, and employment.

Thomas Lofton, MCES, made the presentation of the system termed a computerized index.

Among those present at the session were: George Guess, representative, Office of the Governor, Jackson; Victor Frankiewicz, Jr., chairman; John McKenna, Randolph Bourgeois, Jr., manager, Stennis International Airport; North Haas, Sr., P.D. (Sonny) Bailey, president, Hancock County Chamber of Commerce; Perry Gibson, manager, Mississippi Power Company, Sam Perniclaro, and James Trivica, supervisors, Beats 4 and 5; John Longo, Jr., mayor, City of Waveland, Dix Ashman.

action taken the previous Saturday when by a two-to-one vote with two members passing, Burnie J. Ladner was hired as school bus mechanic.

Board member Louie Ladner, Tuesday night called for an opinion from the state attorney general's office after the legality of the Saturday vote was questioned.

Board President Monvel Cuevas said precedent called for at least three board members to approve board action.

Wednesday morning, Board Atty. Joseph Gex delivered to the board an oral opinion from the state attorney general's office to the effect that Burnie Ladner, in fact, had been legally hired on Saturday.

Therefore, in a three-to-one vote on Wednesday, with Louie Ladner absent, the board terminated Burnie Ladner and hired Glenn Ladner, also by a three-to-one vote.

Voting Wednesday in favor of firing Burnie Ladner and in favor of hiring Glenn Ladner were board members Monvel Cuevas, Johnny Banks and Oris Ladner. Voting against the two proposals was Woodrow Ladner.

In another personnel action Tuesday, the board accepted the resignation of James D. Baldree as assistant principal of Hancock North Central. Baldree, formerly of Pearlington, has been accepted by the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School District as principal of Waveland Elementary School.

to increase allowable earnings from the present $3,000 per year to $4,500 in 1978 and $6,000 thereafter.

"These proposed increases are closely attuned to the principle behind legislation I introduced in January, 1975," Lott said, "I believe this increase could go a long way toward restoring the credibility of the Social Security system as a means of helping our elderly citizens."

Lott said many older Americans cannot support themselves if they are allowed to earn only $3,000 per year without a loss of Social Security benefits. "Many of our senior citizens are living on inadequate diets simply Ashman spoke to the group concerning a tourist information sign on the highway.

The MIDAS Committee resolved to endorse the efforts of county farmers in having the county declared a disaster area, and are to send a letter to the governor and the congressional delegation to this effect.

Frankiewicz, following the meeting, said some confusion existed regarding a statement allegedly made by him concerning the use of EDA monies.

He said the MIDAS group had been accused of reversing themselves in the matter of priorities when this was not indeed true.

The misunderstanding arose, Frankiewicz said, over a statement concerning the $50,000 approved by the Governor for the pedestrian overpass at Dunbar and US-90.

As the project had to be 100 percent funded and ready to go within 90 days of the allocation of funds, or else the Bay stood to lose the grant, Midas stated they felt it better if the money be reallocated to an alternate project if this could not be accomplished.

To this end, he allowed, MIDAS opted to recommend the money be shunted over to Waveland for the purchase of a fire truck and said that the MIDAS group did not, nor do not, wish the money to be spent elsewhere in the state so it provided the alternate. This, he emphasized would only apply should Bay St. Louis be unable to utilize the grant.

Board member Woodrow Ladner said he accepted Baldree's resignation "with regrets...we're losing a mighty good man."

The board also accepted the resignation of Ms. Yvonne Williams as cafeteria supervisor. Ms. Williams, who is dietician at Hancock General Hospital, will serve the school system on a part-time basis for the next three weeks while a replacement is being sought.

In other action Tuesday, the board: Approved the leasing of two tracts of 16th Section land to the county for recreational purposes at Charles B. Murphy School, Pearlington, and at Necaise Crossing.

Approved the purchase of four Civil Defense emergency early warning network monitors to be placed in principals' offices at a cost of $55 each.

Took under advisement bids on two air conditioning units for counselor's office and teacher lounge at Hancock North Central.

Also on Wednesday, the board authorized board architect John Mykolyk to draw up plans and specifications and advertise for bids on construction of a new cafeteria at Hancock North Central. Bids are to be opened Dec. 5.

The board recessed its Wednesday meeting until further notice. The next regularly scheduled meeting is set for 6 p.m. Monday, Oct. 3.

because they cannot afford a decent lifestyle," he said.

"Many of our best workers, whose skills, wisdom and stability could be highly beneficial to our economic system, sense a uselessness to their lives because their productivity is being deliberately held down," he said. "It is past time to show our senior citizens that they are still a vital part of this nation's work force."

Lott interpreted the subcommittee's vote as a "clear signal that Congress has turned its attention to helping elderly Americans wage a successful battle against unfavorable economic conditions which threaten their livelihoods."

Stanislaus faces winless Notre Dame

by RANDY LANKFORD
The St. Stanislaus Rock-a-Chaws will be out to hand the Notre Dame Rebels their third straight football loss Friday when they meet in Bay St. Louis.

Although his team is 1-0-1 and the Rebels are 0-2, Stanislaus coach Bill Poole isn't taking the game lightly. "They must outweigh us 25 pounds per man. This is by far the biggest team we've played. Their line averages about 215 or 220 pounds. It's hard to move those people out. We're definitely going to have to outthrust them."

"We'll have to hit them while they're still standing still," groaned Poole. After taking their first win last week against St. John the Rock-a-Chaws will be confident going into Friday's contest, according to the coach. "I feel that we played as well in our first game (a 26-26 tie with Pearl River Central) as we did in our second. We were satisfied with the first game, and I feel we can compete with just about everybody in the conference."

Poole feels that the 0-2 record of the Rebels is misleading and that they are a better team than their record reflects. Citing a well balanced offense for the Notre downs in the air last week against the St. John team and Poole will have his team passing again this week.

'Cats lose second straight

POPLARVILLE - Pearl River Junior College's Wildcats dropped their second game in as many weeks here Saturday night as the East Mississippi Lions, winless after two starts, thumped the defending state champs 27-13.

PRC lost last week to the Jones Bobcats, 27-6. Later in the week the Bobcats were picked number one in the nation. East Mississippi's Lions on the other hand were an entirely different story, after two ball games the club had given up 31 points to Jones and 32 points to Itawamba. The Lions' win was their first victory over the Cats since 1968. Pearl River's quarterbacks had a terrible night, as they gave up five interceptions. All of the miscues stopped Cat drives or set up Lion scoring plays.

Four minutes later the Lions marched 62 yards in 9 plays for another score. John Hill rambed over from the two, untouched, to give the East Mississippi team a very comfortable 24-7 advantage. James Smith scored for the Wildcats later in the third quarter as he took off on a 41 yard TD run on fourth down.

Dame team, Poole feels his team will need a good defensive performance.

"They run from a lot of different formations. They use the wishbone, T, pro set, slot set and wing set. They have a well balanced offense and it's going to take a real good defensive effort to stop them."

"Our defense will have to be able to read their offense and adjust to it. If we read it wrong we could end up in the wrong spot."

"They like to go for the big play and will try to get a cheap touchdown on us. We will have to have a good effort from our defensive backs to keep them from hitting the bomb," added Poole.

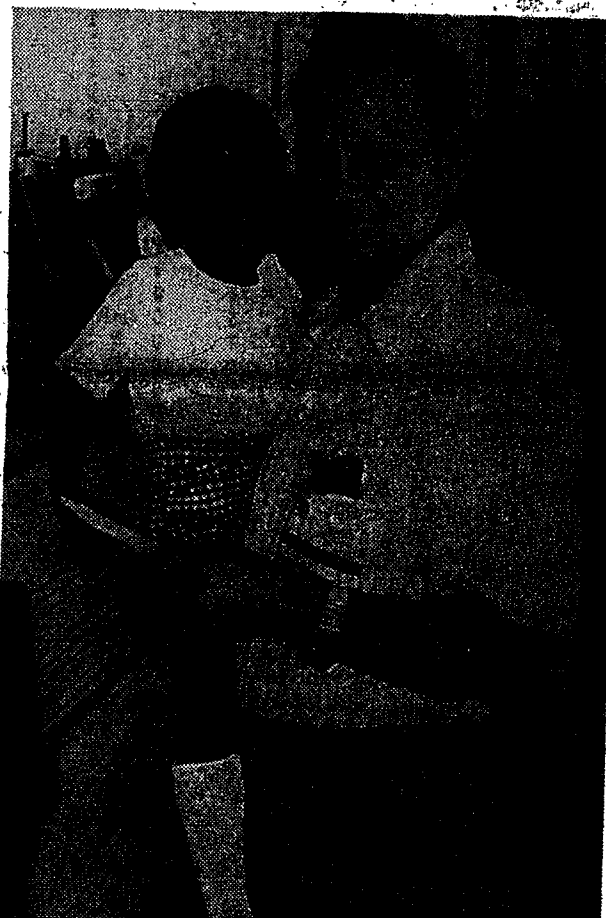

"We'll have to play a better defensive game than we did last week. We know we have to work on our defense."

The Rocks got three touch-

"We feel that our passing game helps our running game. A lot of people see it the other way. But we feel that our passing game is so strong that it compliments our running game," Poole concluded.

The coach also had praise for his team for their blocking efforts in the win last week.

"Gene Rogers our offensive tackle had an outstanding game with a 90 per cent blocking average. That means that nine out of 10 times he whipped the man on his head. That's a very fine effort on his part. Tight end Fred Keel also had a good game blocking. He hit on 81 per cent. Fullback Greg Hammer and Tailback Bill Kergosien also had 80 per cent blocking averages. We think they all did a very good job on their blocking assignments," added the Rock-a-Chaw boss.

PRC moves players

POPLARVILLE—Pearl River Junior College's Wildcats will have to do, as the old saying goes, "a lot of soul searching" this week.

Last Saturday night the Wildcats did almost the unforgivable at least in the eyes of Cat supporters they did, they lost their second game in a row.

East Mississippi's Lions, the team that lost to Jones and Itawamba earlier, slapped the Wildcats at home 27-13. The Lion's victory meant the Wildcats, defending state champions, were now in the losing bracket, something they are just not used to.

"It's not the end of the world," J. C. Arban, PRC's head coach, said. "But I tell you if things don't get to jelling around here and if we don't quit being so inconsistent, it's gonna get rough."

Arban said he planned to move several players around this week to new positions. "Right now we are hunting the best combination."

"We just didn't rise up when we needed to," Arban said. "I hope by putting different players at key positions we may become more consistent. We have to have some leadership out there, and our sophomores are just not keeping things going."

Pearl River's biggest let down last Saturday night was the passing of quarterbacks Jeff Davis and Joey Howard. Together they gave up five interceptions, an almost unheard of statistic for PRC quarterbacks.

"Two in one game is a lot," Arban commented, "but five - well that's just not going to happen again." Pearl River completed nine of 34 aeriels for 188 yards.

"We would make a good run, throw a good pass, make another good gain and then throw an interception—we just couldn't get anything going." Defensively the Wildcats played better than they did in the first two outings, but let downs and mixups cost the PRC team yardage and points.

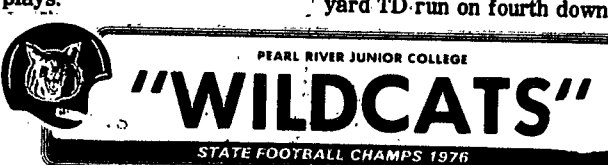

"They had a good football team, but we should have beaten them," the PRC coach said. "We threw the ball away that fumble was just bad luck."

Arban was referring to the fumble that Lion's defensive end George Coleman scooped up after it bounced straight into his hands and raced 42 yards for a score. "Things like that just don't happen too often," Arban said.

"Well, if we were going to lose, I'm glad ole Scooba is the one that beat us, they needed that win," Arban said, "of course I'm really sorry it was over us."

Pearl River will face the Hinds Eagles this Saturday night at home. The Eagles are described as a very aggressive team that is much improved over last seasons 1-8 performance.

"If we don't rise up we will get beat again," Arban warned, "right now there are no easy games. We are no better than anyone else in the league. Come Saturday night, we'll find out just what we are made of, there's no doubt about that."

East Mississippi set the stage early for what was to come as Lion quarterback Greg Griffith, sprinted around left end to race 76 yards and the first touchdown. Joe Hopper added the first of three PAT's.

The Wildcats took the kickoff and drove from the 33 to the 14 in 11 plays. Phillip Lee tried a 31 yard field goal but it was wide to the left.

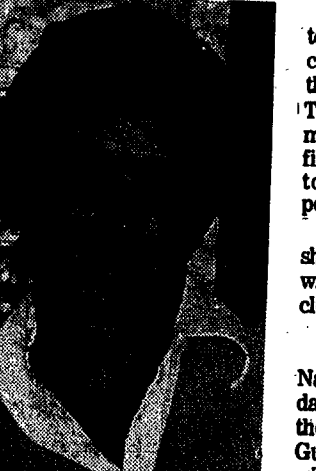

East Mississippi scored again with three seconds on the first period clock. Hopper kicked a 35 yard field goal. The drive was set up after linebacker Lamar Williams picked off a Jeff Davis pass at the Cat 23.

Two series later, Pearl River began at their own 33; Memphis McAbee picked up 18 yards. Joey Howard then threw two incomplete passes before finding Jesse Carter open with a 50 yard screen pass. Phillip Lee added the extra point and PRC cut the lead to 10-7 with 11:43 remaining in the first half.

Davis was intercepted again before halftime, but the Wildcats got it back when Jeff January recovered an East Mississippi fumble. PRC ended the first half with a Davis pass to Dodd Lee for 38 yards.

In the third quarter things didn't bounce right at all for the Wildcats. But they certainly did for the Lions. With 12:34 remaining in the third quarter, defensive end George Coleman had a fumble bounce into his arms at the Cat 42, and he raced untouched to the endzone.

Coleman blocked the extra point and PRC had cut the third quarter score to 14-13. Hopper's toe added insurance to the East Mississippi performance in the last quarter when he booted another three pointer, this time from 32 yards out.

PROMOTION ANNOUNCED - Ellis Cuevas, Editor and Publisher of the Sea Coast Echo, has announced the promotion of Randy Lankford to Sports Editor of the Echo, effective immediately. Lankford, who has been with the Echo two months, is the son of Dorothy Lankford of San Antonio, Tex. and comes to the Echo from the Enterprise Daily Ledger in Alabama. Aside from his duties in the sports department, Lankford will also serve as an advertising representative for the Echo. Lankford and his wife Cathy live on Cedar Lane in Bay St. Louis.

Hunting, fishing day proclaimed

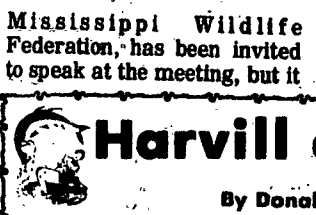

The saltwater fishing seems to be improving, people are catching a few more specks than they have been recently. The bull reds are starting to move in also. The improved fishing is probably due largely to cooling water temperatures.

The freshwater fishing should be improving as well with lower temperatures and clearing water conditions.

This Saturday will be National Hunting and Fishing day. Friday the president of the Bay-Waveland Rod and Gun Club, Frank Ladner, met with Bay St. Louis Mayor, Larry Bennett for the signing of a proclamation stating that Sept. 24 will be officially recognized as National Hunting and Fishing Day in Bay St. Louis.

This Saturday will also be the opening day of the dove season in the southern half of the state. You don't really have to be a track shot to hit doves, but it sure helps, at times doves can be some of the hardest birds to hit.

There will be a regular meeting of the Bay-Waveland Rod and Gun Club this Monday. Carlton Owen, Executive Director, of the

By Donald Harvill

Mississippi Wildlife Federation, has been invited to speak at the meeting, but it isn't known for sure, at this time, if he will be able to attend the meeting.

The turn-out for the bass tournament on Sat. wasn't as large as was hoped and the fishing probably would have been better if the water conditions had been better. One of our local bass fishermen did pretty good in the tournament, and that was Sid Davis.

The results of the tournament are as follows:
1st - Wayne Schum
2nd - Ken Caulk
3rd - William Meadows
4th - Buford Neelase
5th - Wayne Monk
6th - Randy Jenkins
7th - Jack Mauldin

Bay High faces PC

by RANDY LANKFORD
Following two consecutive scoreless games, the Bay High Tigers will have some new people in some positions in hopes of better results against the Pass Christian Pirates Friday night.

"We've made a few changes here and there that hopefully will improve our offense and defense a little," said coach Billy Rhodes in announcing the player changes.

Moving into the starting offense for the Tigers will be Ken Ferrell at left guard and Jimmy Craig at left tackle.

Ferrell will move into the lineup as a 160 lb. junior with Craig coming in in his senior year at 180 pounds.

"We're not really changing that much," added Rhodes. "We just want to try some different things and try to straighten ourselves out a little. We're just changing our philosophy a little," said the coach.

Rhodes is still optimistic about his team's chances after they fell to a last week with a 17-0 loss against Hancock North Central.

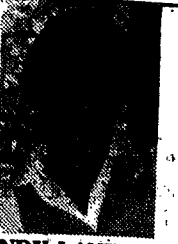

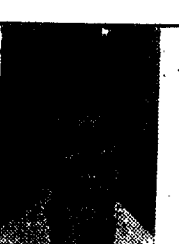

"We're not out of it yet. I still think we can have a good season. It will just take a lot of work."

"Our last two games weren't good ones. We just didn't have good games. Our players can do better than they did and they're going to have to."

"We're going to have to gain some confidence. The kids don't have much confidence in themselves or the team. I think we can come back though and turn things around."

The Tigers will go up against Pass Christian on Friday night and Friday night 7:30 p.m. Pass Christian suffered its first loss last week. At that time, the gave the young team of Danny Killeen, Dwight and Beau LeBlanc low score to win the series for SYC. Randy Santa Cruz finished fifth in the final race for BWYC, securing second place for the home team.

Larry Taggart made a clean sweep in the Open Scot Class winning all three races with crew Cindy Stieffel and Ford Gaudin. Bob Whitehurst crossed the line first in all three races of the seventeen boat Laser fleet and Harry Chapman led the Sunfish Class with another perfect score of three firsts.

Basel Kennedy with Tear Kennedy and Mat Stieffel crewing edged out his competition in a strategic move at the start of the final race, then led the way around the triangular course to win the victory in the Fish Class.

PEARLINGTON: There has been no saltwater fishing. There weren't many people fishing here this weekend. Most people were fishing in the bass tournament. The water is improving and hopefully with a dry, cool front moving in the fishing should improve for this weekend. We open at daylight on weekdays and at 5:00 on weekends. We have some rental skills and motors. We are closed on Tuesdays. (Roy Baxter, Pearl River Marina.)

BAYOU CADDY: The fishing has been pretty good. The water is clearing and if good weather holds up conditions will continue to get better, fishing will improve. About half of the boats that went out over the weekend caught good messes of nice specks and bull reds averaging about 30 lbs. Willie Blackwell from Bogalusa, La. in 2 days fishing caught 5 or 6 nice redfish and 200 specks. (Mr. Bordages, Bordage Bros. Marina.)

JOE'S BAYOU: Not much fishing over the weekend, due to weather conditions and not much bait. A few redfish were caught on live bait at Grassy Point and by the bridge. Because of cooler weather we are expecting to have a good supply of live bait this

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kingston caught a nice mess of specks and flounders, Monday. A few more nice catches were made. Water conditions are looking good, high tide is in the morning and low tide in the evening.

Until next week: Shoot all the doves you want, just don't shoot over the limit.

ANSLEY: There has been a lot of fishing out of here. Mr. and Mrs. Avery Jones from John Moss, Dean DeSalvo and Fred Peterman all scored touchdowns for St. Clare to lead the team to its second straight victory recently. The win came by a 20-0 margin over Annunciation.

Peterman carried 10 times for 84 yards in the game to pace the St. Clare's team. Along with the one touchdown that counted Peterman added two extra points and had two touchdowns called back.

DeSalvo carried six times with 33 total yards in the game. Aside from his touchdown pass, Moss connected on five of five attempts. John Henry caught five passes for the St. Clare's team for a total of 19 yards in the contest.

Defensive standouts for St. Clare's were Vincent Schott with two fumble recoveries and Peterman with a pass interception. Marty Sahuque was also cited for excellent defensive play. The St. Clare defense held Annunciation to one first down in the game and has yet to be scored on.

The St. Clare's team takes to the field again Saturday at 10 a.m. to face Bay Catholic at the St. Stanislaus field.

PROCLAMATION

Hunting and FISHING Day

Because of the outstanding contributions that America's hunters and fishermen have made to conservation, recreation and the economy, they are deserving of special recognition.

Since the turn of the century, hunters and anglers have been the leaders in nearly all major conservation programs. These sportsmen-conservationists are responsible for the founding of state fish and game departments in all 50 states. They asked that they, themselves, be required to buy licenses and that the money collected be used to support state conservation agencies. In the last 50 years alone, these sportsmen have provided over $5 billion for conservation programs.

Hunters and fishermen asked for the establishment of regulated seasons and bag limits so that sportsmen could harvest the annual crop of game and fish without damage to the basic breeding population. The result has been that there are now more deer, elk, antelope and wild turkey in the United States than there were 50 years ago. Further, sportsmen's programs have benefited numerous species of non-game fish and wildlife through habitat development.

Hunters and fishermen, unique in all America, asked that their fishing and hunting equipment be taxed and that the money be used for land acquisition, research and habitat management for fish and wildlife for the enjoyment of all Americans.

Therefore, I, Larry J. Bennett, Mayor of the City of Bay St. Louis, do hereby proclaim Saturday, September 24, 1977, as National Hunting and Fishing Day and that this day be an annual observance the fourth Saturday of each September. I urge all of our citizens to join with sportsmen-conservationists in a dedication to the wise use of our natural resources and their proper management for the benefit of future generations. Further, I urge all citizens to take part in Hunting and Fishing Day activities on September 24 to learn more about conservation and outdoor skills.

The organization has scheduled another meeting for tonight at 7 p.m. at the Waveland Civic Center with the new officers presiding. Any interested parents are urged to attend this meeting.

Punt, Pass & Kick near

Local youngsters will be "dusting off" their football and loosening up their throwing arm soon for the 1977 Punt, Pass and Kick competition.
This year the local level of PP&K will be sponsored by participating Ford Dealers in the area.
Nationally PP&K is celebrating its 17th anniversary. It is sponsored by the Ford Dealers of America in cooperation with the National Football League. Since it was started in 1961, the program has attracted more than 14 million youngsters - and participation this year is expected to top the 1,300,000 mark.
Participants in the Punt, Pass and Kick program compete only against other their own age. Any youngster 8 through 13 years of age, accompanied by a parent or guardian, may register to compete in PP&K at any participating Ford Dealer.
There is no entrance fee and no body contact during competition. No special equipment is needed and participating does not impair a youngster's amateur standing.
Scoring is based on distance and accuracy with one point added for every foot the ball is punted, passed or kicked, and a point subtracted for every foot it lands off a center line.
Twelve national finalists will compete for the National Championships in their age group at Super Bowl XII in New Orleans on January 15, 1978. Winners will have their names permanently inscribed in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Their trophies will be presented by National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

News in brief

PERINATAL MEDICINE CLINIC
The Alton Ochsner Medical Foundation will conduct its Second Annual Symposium on Clinical Perinatal Medicine, Oct. 7 and 8, at the hospital. Open to practicing physicians, medical postgraduates in training, nurses and respiratory therapists, the symposium is expected to attract 150 participants from throughout the Gulf South.

DRUG USE SYMPTOMS
The Health Insurance Institute has cited certain symptoms as clues to drug use: moodiness, drowsiness, loss of interest in sports, school, and the opposite sex, acting as if intoxicated when there is no smell of alcohol, increased appetite and loss of weight. By the same token, the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation has warned that the same clues are also symptoms of hyperglycemia and/or hypoglycemia, both life-threatening diabetic illnesses.

BARBARA A. RAPPOLD

CLAIRE BOURGEOIS

Waveland municipal employees gain professional recognition

Recognition for continued effort, at professional improvement has come to two Waveland officials this week. Miss Barbara A. Rappold, city clerk, has been awarded the designation "Certified city clerk" by the International Institute of City Clerks (IIMC).

Mrs. Claire Bourgeois, assessor and tax collector, is among graduates of a Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service training program for assessors and tax collectors.

The IIMC reported Miss Rappold has been cited as "achieving high educational, experience and service requirements established for attainment of this honor."

Miss Rappold has been city clerk of Waveland since September, 1972, and is a graduate of St. Mary's Dominican College in New Orleans, La.

She is a member of the Mississippi Municipal Clerks, Assessors and Tax Collectors Association and has served on its board of directors.

She is also secretary-treasurer of the Gulf Coast Municipal Association.

In addition, Miss Rappold is currently serving as state membership chairman of the IIMC. She is among 19 other municipal clerks in Mississippi to hold the title Certified Municipal Clerk.

Mrs. Bourgeois, is also a graduate of the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service's three-year training program for clerks, assessors and tax collectors.

Mrs. Bourgeois is a veteran of more than 27 years in municipal service and is also a member of the Mississippi Municipal Association.

She serves as clerk of the Waveland Municipal Court and is a regular member of the city's police force.

Mrs. Bourgeois is secretary of the Parish Council of St. Clare's Catholic Church, Waveland, and a member of St. Clare's choir.

1st birthday party given

Fryer child

Christopher Daxton Fryer of New Orleans celebrated his first birthday with a party Sunday, Sept. 18, at the Bay St. Louis home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elus Depreo.

The refreshment table was centered with a cake in the shape of a fire engine and Misses Lisa and Alice Zengarling, costumed as clowns, distributed favors to the children.

Games were played and prizes won by Trent Favre and Ronnie Peterson Jr. Guests included Christopher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fryer Jr., his brother, Billy III, and approximately 30 of his Bay St. Louis friends.

HALLOWEEN IS SUBJECT Drawings, poetry and recordings of people telling their Halloween memories will comprise an exhibit opening Oct. 4 at Phase I of The University of Mississippi Cultural Center, the University Museums. Writer-artist Glenn Ray Tutor said his drawings are "basically scary" but should make viewers chuckle when they think of their own memories.

who's new

Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Hazelwood of Corpus Christi, Tex., announce the birth of their second child and second daughter, Lindsey Grey, Sept. 7 at Spohn Hospital, Corpus Christi. She weighed six pounds, 15 ounces.

Mrs. Hazelwood is the former Erin Heitzmann, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Roger Heitzmann, Sr. of Bay St. Louis. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hazelwood of Corpus Christi, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Strong, Jr., of Greenwood, announce the birth of their first child, a girl, Tammy Lynn, born Sept. 6 at Laflore Hospital, weighing six pounds 13 and a half ounces.

Mrs. Strong is the former Betty Ann Boudro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Boudro of Bayside Park.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Strong of Bay St. Louis.

Notes from Pearlinton

ONA MAE MCARTHUR Happy birthday to Gene McGuire, Clarence Page, Myrtle Foster, Willis Montz, Cecile Adams, Susan Shubert Rubio, Martin McArthur, Jr. and Ellen Watkins.

Happy birthday to Mrs. Cecelia Ladner on her 83rd birthday from her granddaughter, Melinda Walters.

Friends and relatives are invited to celebrate the 50th wedding anniversary with Mr. and Mrs. George McArthur on Sunday, Sept. 25. Open house from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at their home.

Get well to Mr. C. M. Page in Slidell hospital. Also to Benny Garrett home from Mobile hospital. Merle Garrett recovering from injured foot.

We are glad to learn Clifton Murphy is home again from the hospital.

Bradley Lenfant has 1st birthday

Bradley Joseph Lenfant, son of Melanie Lenfant, celebrated his first birthday Sept. 10 at the home of his grandparents, Carmel and Wally Jeanfreau of Lakeshore. Brad is pictured above on his new car, a present from his Aunt Bunni and the Jeanfreau family.

Those in attendance were: Micki Perniclaro and son Michael; Lorna Perniclaro and daughter, Gina; Karen Burch, her daughter Samantha, and son Sammy John; Linda Lee Hulsey of Gulfport, her son, Lee, and friend Raymond; Rita Falgout and son, John; Mrs. Connie West, her sons, Charlie, Freddie, Jerry, and daughter, Mary, along with their grandmother; Connie's mother from Alaska; Lisa Caracci and Kay Helmers of New Orleans; Pam Cuevas, Bridget and Mary Favre of Lakeshore; Collette Schindler of Bay St. Louis; Aunt Laura Dunkley, Melissa Henley, Great grandmother Mrs. Gladys Mouldous of Clermont Harbor; Grandmother Carmel Jeanfreau, Brad's Mom, Melanie, and Great-aunt Mary Alice Ladner of Waveland.

Assisting with the party were Aunts Bunni and Shell Jeanfreau.

Samantha Burch, daughter of Sammy and Karen Burch of Waveland, helped Brad open his presents, and cake and ice cream were served.

Brad says "Hi" to his grandparents of Metairie, Louisiana, Mr. and Mrs. John Lenfant, III.

The history of Hancock County

HISTORY AND HOUSES OF HANCOCK COUNTY HISTORIC SITES SURVEY COMMITTEE HANCOCK COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY Margaret M. Gibbons Historic Sites Survey Committee Chairman Odile Carter Publicity Chairman

"A MAN'S HOME IS HIS CASTLE"

There can be no history of a people without a study of their furniture —

From simple tables and benches to hewed out wooden utensils.

To mattresses that were only dry, leaves set upon a frame.

In olden times furniture was individually built by hand in contrast to the first assembly technique of today's methods. The best available woods were used along with sturdy construction.

Furniture was made to last. The peg was not the only method to hold furniture together. As early as 1790 square-headed nails were hand forged.

"And antique furniture, if it is beautiful and well-made will increase in value as attested to the Auction Houses of Christie and Sotheby Perke Bernet.

Sotheby auctioned a French Louis XV marquetry Secretaire belonging to Lord Roseberg (a Rothschild).

The bid for the piece of furniture was $481,600 (which the present owner promptly said was not high enough.) He decided to keep the fabulous secretaire.

A footstool sold for $1,200. An inkstand also at his sale went for $5,500.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

BAY GARDEN HONORS—Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Parrish of 516 Sunset Drive, Bay St. Louis, are winners of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club's September citation for outstanding garden in Bay St. Louis. Mrs. Herman Mazarakis of Waveland, club president, said the monthly honors are rarely accorded to club members and the club welcomes nominations of non-member residences as candidates for "Garden of the Month" honors. (Staff photo-Edgar Perez)

WAVELAND WINNER—The Bay-Waveland Garden Club's September "Garden of the Month" winner in Waveland is this garden by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Baron of 125 Grosvenor Place. Mrs. Baron is a 25-year member of the club and a frequent winner of "Garden of the Month" honors. The couple has resided at their current address only three months, with this month's award being the first at that location. The garden features a flowering Confederate Rose pictured at left. Hobolochitto Baptists ready for 121st Session

Three member churches in Hancock County will be joining their bretheren at the 121st Annual Session of the Hobolochitto Baptist Association, Saturday, Sept. 24, at the Henleyfield First Baptist Church, Picayune.

The meeting will be gavelled to order at 10 a.m. by Rev. Kenneth W. Flynt, Picayune, moderator.

Rev. John E. Moore, pastor of Lee's Chapel Baptist Church, Leetown, for more than 24 years, will be the speaker at the 11 a.m. worship service.

The official body is composed of three "messengers" from each cooperating church. A number of denominational leaders and other visitors from throughout the state are expected to attend.

The public is cordially invited to the session, which will also have a dinner served picnic style at the noon recess fellowship hour.

Business will continue in the afternoon.

Further information is available by phone at 1-798-7163.

Following the business session a social hour was held and members presented Father Canisius Hayes, pastor, with a birthday cake.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, Oct. 11.

Our School

Sister Mary Cornelia, religion co-ordinator for St. Ann's Parish, announced registration for religion classes for public school students, grades 1 and 2, and 3, will be held Tuesday, September 27, in parish hall and for grades 4, 5 and 6 Thursday, September 29.

Volunteer teachers, and aides are still needed to assist with the program, Sister added.

Sister Mary Cornelia to serve at St. Ann's

Sister Mary Cornelia, Missionary Servant of the Most Blessed Trinity, is the new parish worker for St. Ann's Church, Clermont Harbor, and St. John's, Lakeshore.

Born in McKeesport, Penn., she entered the MSBT in 1938.

Sister Cornelia's first mission was at St. Patrick's Church, Cape Cod, Massachusetts, at the church and its three missions then, after eight years, she continued to work from the same. Cenacle but switched her area to Onset and Buzzard's Bay, a newly organized parish.

Following a total of 14 years in the New England state, Sister Cornelia was missioned to Mississippi where she spent six years in Camden, and then was sent to work among the Choctaw Indians in reservations surrounding Philadelphia.

Four-years after beginning that mission she was sent north again, this time to Rego Park, Queens, New York, to work in the large city parish of the Blessed Virgin Help of Christians for 13 years.

At this latter mission she helped with the CCD classes, youth section, retarded and handicapped, the sick and senior citizens.

Asked of her past and present mission appointments, Sister Cornelia said, "I enjoy making friends, but most of all doing the work assigned to me for God's honor and glory."
